The Way of the Prausgressor

St. Louis, March 13. - A dispatch from Hot Springs says: This morning, Geo. D. Williams, clerk of the Sumter Hotel, killed Mrs. Norris, a guest of the Hotel, killed Mrs. Norris, a guest of the house, and attempted to kill himself. It is alleged that an intimacy has for some time existed between Williams and Mrs. Norris, who was a quite young and very fashionable woman. Her alleged hissband, a sporting main, claims to have discovered W. Himan last night in his wife's apartment and the matter became public through the disturbance which ensued. Williams is a young man, very popular in society and no stain on his character ever before existed. He fired only two shots, one of which penetrated the heart of the victim, and the other his own head just above the right temple. It, however, only tractured the skull and the wound is not fatal. He is now in prison.

CINCINSATI, March 13.-The street railroad strike is ended. The Walnut Hills line accepted $1.85 for a day of Hills line accepted $1.85 for a day of twelve hours and sent out their cars about 2 o'clock. Employees of the consolidated company had a less harmonious meeting. They began their sexion at 2 o'clock and were about equally divided between the two proportions made by President Rilgour of $1.85 all around or $2 for conductors and $1.75 for drivers. It required considerable time to come to a decision, but they sattled upon the last proposition and at 5 o'clock the cars were ordered out and the men resumed work.

Primacuo, March 13.-At a meeting of the miners of Clearfield region at Tyrone, Pa., to-day, it was resolved Tyrone, Pa. 10-day, If was resolved to strike for an increase of 10 cents per fon. Clearfield district Includes sixty miners, employing 5,000 men, and is regarded as the pivotal branch of the entire soft coal regions. The miners have all quit work and the collierys are all now closed. Action taken at to-day's meeting makes the strike general. It is estimated that 10,000 miners are engaged in the atribe. in the strike.

A Temporary Injunction Wanted. Sr. Louis, March 13.-Attorneys o the Missouri Pecliic, this afternoon, sp. plied to Judge Horner, of the Circuit Court, for a temporary injunction to restrain J. J. McGarry, M. P. Palmer, P. H. ### Peculiar Case of Bigamy Oswgoo, N. Y., March 2, 1886.—Mrs. Isaac Rury, of New Haven, Oswego County, was arrested to-day on a charge of bigamy. The story told by Mrs. Rury's a peculiar one. She married tor first hunband fifteen years ago in Hawkinsville, Oneida County, when she was fifteen years old. After her marriage she discovered that her husband was not a man. She left him after living with him six months, and has net seen him siftee. She married Rury in 1881. She alleges that her second husband was acquainted with the facts in the case. She had him arrested a day or two ago for broat treatment, and claims that the present proceedings are brought against her for spite. Her first husband's name was Roselle Loquary, and her maiden name Ella M. Cummings. Rury is a peculiar one. She married

Kansas Cirr, March 13.—A 12-year-old daughter of Charles Morash, a farmer, living near Quindaro, a few miles north of Wyandotte, Kansas, was miles north of wynnote, Raissa, was outraged while on her way to the former place this afternson by a negro about 18 years of age. The brute used a knife to aid in the accomplishment of his purpose. The girl managed to drag herself home, and gave a description of her assailant, and the entire neighborhood is now out in search of nim. He will probably be lynched if caught.

Railroad Troubles.

KANSAS CITY, March 13 .- The Trans KANSAS CITY, March 15.—The transcontinental freight war has opened gnew. The market for corn from this region and that esreal, which has heretofore been selling for $2. a bushel in San Francisco is now offered at 65 cents. But little corn is used in California, none being raised there and the usual freight rates not justifying importation. Barley has hitherto been a common substitute. Fifty-two car loads of corn were shipped to San Francisco to-day.

The Billiard Sharps

New York, March 13.—The interna-tional billiard match between Jacob Schaefer, of this city, and Maurice Vignaux, of Paris, came to a termina-tion this evening. The attendance was large, although the crowd was not as Vignaux, of Paris, came to a termination this evening. The attendance was large, although the crowd was not as large as on previous evenings, ewing to the lead obtained by Schaefer over Vignaux, which last night was 1128 points, and thereby rendered hopeless the chances of Vignaux for winning. The spectators, however, were rewarded, by seeing some of the prettiest billiard playing ever exhibited in this city. Vignaux made I on his eighth inning, his total being U. Schaefer made 44 more and gave Vignaux a chance, which he improved by making a neat run of 60. Schaefer, for the second time during the game, looked through an 0 and gave the Frenchman another chance, of which he availed himself at the same time giving a fine exhibition of his art in brilliant all around table shots, counting each time with wonderful skill, until fice had bagged 55 buttons. His fittieth shot was applauded on its merits as a draw, and the fiftieth-first as a follow shot. Schaefer made a single and left the balls in position for until he had bagges with the balls in position for a gard and left the balls in position for a draw shot, which Vignaux secured, and made 23 more on the six teenth shot. The balls were all in a balk on the lower left hand corner of the table, and the Frenchman sent them next was a prelty kiss shot, one ball forcing a spot against the left side cushion and kissing back to the red; then the Wigard' on the service on the six to the red; then the Wigard' on the service on the service of the table so the service on the service of the stable on the ball forcing a spot against the left side cushion and kissing back to the red; then the Wigard' on the red; then the Wigard' on the service on the service of the

WHEN THE news of Judge Parts ction in the late Eureks-Beck case taking the witness stand in his own court and testifying before himself the witness must have confus dissed the Judge, by the way reached Senator Teller, that gentleman is said to have burst a small blood-vessel with laughter. "I only remember having heard one case anything like that," he said," and that was when I was a young man practicing before a certain Judge in Coboraido. During the case he made an observation to which I objected on the ground that no witness had said any such thing. The judge promptly left his seat, went down into the witness stand; repeated the remark and said. "Now you have a witness who said such a thing, sir." "Object still," said it. "On what ground sir?" "On the ground that there is a court by whom the testimony can be taken." ourt and testifying before himself
